

Selected pages of the report:

Orientation Training on Medicinal Plants Conservation & Sustainable Use for IFS Probationers

01-02 January 2014,

FRLHT, Bangalore

Program Report

Compiled by

Somashekhar B S
Course Director

Foundation for Revitalisation of 74/2, Jarakabande Kaval, Attur

Local Health Traditions
P.O.via Yelahanka

Bengaluru, INDIA 560106

Ph:080-28568000

www.iaim.edu.in

January 2014

Orientation Training on Medicinal Plants Conservation & Sustainable Use for IFS Probationers

01-02 January 2014,
Bangalore

CONTENTS

1. Background
2. Learning Objectives of the Course
3. Themes and Focal Subjects
4. Brief account of the deliberations from the Learning sessions
5. Feedback and Learning Outcome from the Course
6. Participation

Appendix 1: Course schedule

Appendix 2: Learning Objectives - Focal Theme Matrix

Appendix 3: Contents of the Reading material compendium

Program report:

Orientation Training on Medicinal Plants Conservation & Sustainable Use for IFS Probationers, 01-02 January 2014.

The 2-day course was designed by FRLHT training team, as a capsule course keeping in view the broad learning needs of these audience, and covered the key focal subjects, such as: Medicinal plant diversity of India, Healthcare Significance & usage patterns of Medicinal plants, Collection & Trade, current status & threats to medicinal plants, Different conservation initiatives and strategies. Participatory sessions with Hands on activities, Discussion, Multimedia presentations, Experience sharing, Field visits and Assignment tasks were employed. An exclusive reading material compendium was prepared for the use of the participants. Interested organization and individuals please write to the following id: bs.somashekhar@frlht.org